

My wife Margaret and I have lived in Delia since 1988 when we moved here to operate the Alberta Wheat Pool Elevator. In 2002, the Elevator closed operations and I began my current career with the UFA, managing the local bulk fuel station. I have two adult children, Corey and Christopher. I am enjoying my second term on the Village council and in 2011 was nominated to the position of Mayor.

